About Us

The Catholic Parish of Guildford is made up of four active and diverse church communities: St Josephs, St Marys, St Pius X and St Edward the Confessor, form the Catholic Parish of Guildford, one of the largest in the Diocese of Arundel and Brighton. At the heart of our parish are people of all ages and backgrounds who work, pray and share their lives together. Our children, youth and family work is unique and a particularly strong feature of the parish. We have fantastic fully equipped facilities that provide excellent opportunities to continue to grow this crucial and well-supported ministry.

Guildford is a large university town in Surrey of over 130,000 people with good transport links to London, which is less than an hour away by train.
