Write an RSVP to Jesus

Usually when we get an official invitation to a wedding or a birthday party, it asks us to RSVP, this means to let them know whether you can come.

Why don't you write/draw your reply to Jesus' invitation to join his Kingdom Party.

You may want to:

- Decorate your RSVP with images of what you've found out the kingdom of God is like from the gospels
- Ask Jesus some questions about the Kingdom of God
- Tell Jesus why you want to come
